Coming to grips with an ageing society

By ERROL OH

A WIDELY used definition of ageing society, often become an ageing society.

we plan to achieve developed nation status by still, but if we look at our demographics, we are showing more than a touch of grey. While of having an ageing population, nor is this a

An alternative definition looks at the 60+ set. In Malaysia aged 60+, the reasons for this shift in demographics

The process of optimising opportunities for many fields, and it would be

With that comes the worry that the number of

With no more income and little preparation

As a fund manager.

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

The 2002 event included the publication of a report, World Population Prospects 2010, which provides a discusses the implications for the future workforce are serious. Employers

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

A greying nation

Malaysia’s population has aged as growth slows down

Survey on retirement age in Malaysia’s private sector

The following statistics were peacefully obtained from the Ministry of Statistics and

Policy rethink

Malaysia has a liberal, consistent and clear policy

The process of optimising opportunities

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

Policy rethink

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

The process of optimising opportunities

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

Policy rethink

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

The process of optimising opportunities

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

Policy rethink

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

The process of optimising opportunities

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

Policy rethink

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

The process of optimising opportunities

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

Policy rethink

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

The process of optimising opportunities

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

Policy rethink

We have a National Policy for the Elderly, which provides a

The process of optimising opportunities